APPLICATION FOR MEMBERSHIP

The object of the Club is the promotion and encouragement of yachting, both sail and power, among amateurs.

The Club Committee has ruled that membership must be limited to those who will assist this object, and therefore ONLY THOSE APPLICANTS WHO HAVE A GENUINE INTEREST IN BOATING WILL BE ACCEPTED FOR MEMBERSHIP.

Applications for Membership are considered by the Club Committee at the next Committee Meeting after the Application Form has been initialled by two members of the Committee and displayed on the Club Notice Board for FOURTEEN DAYS.

It is the responsibility of the Proposers to ensure that the Application Form is fully completed and has been initialled by two members of the Committee who have met the Applicant.

The Club Committee does not guarantee to accept any proposed member nor does it intend to enter into any discussion as to the reasons for refusal of Membership.

NOTES REGARDING APPLICATIONS FOR MEMBERSHIP

Candidates for membership must be proposed and seconded by full members of the Club to whom they are personally known. Both the proposer and seconder must have been members of GYC for at least two years.

Fully completed application forms should be handed to the Secretary together with the appropriate entry fee and annual subscription. If the application is unsuccessful the full amount will be refunded. In the event of an application being received by the Secretary on or after 1st October in any year no subscription shall be payable for that year.

Proposal forms shall be displayed in the Club premises for not less than two weeks during which time any Member shall be entitled to make representations to the Committee in writing, through the Secretary.

A person whose application has been received by the Secretary, may use the facilities of the Club as a Temporary Member until the Secretary informs the applicant that their application has been approved or refused by the Club Committee.

Please note that the category of Joint membership applies to husband and wife or partners in an established long term relationship and living at the same address.
